ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the Complaint and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Cesar Lopez is a 23 year old United States citizen born in Houston, Texas.
2. Lopez is charged with possession with intent to distribute 5 kilograms or more of cocaine, a Schedule II controlled substance, an offense having a penalty range in excess of 10 years confinement.
3. Lopez has prior convictions for malicious wounding and for conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute 500 grams or more of cocaine.
4. Lopez's brother is currently a fugitive believed to be in Mexico.
5. Lopez has violated the terms of his supervised release by traveling to Mexico.
6. Lopez does not have sufficient family oversight to ensure that he will appear in court.
7. Upon arrest, search of Lopez's residence, which he shares with his parents, revealed two rifles, including an AK-47, as well as large quantities of cocaine and cash. The search also revealed a manufactured hidden compartment in his automobile.
8. Lopez has not rebutted the statutory presumption that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
9. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
